MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, CI/R&A

SUBJECT : CI/OPS Course - Satellite Presentation

1. As you know, it has been customary in the past to discuss only two or three of the Soviet Satellite services in the CI/OPS Course. The services usually discussed have been the [REDACTED] these have been selected because they appear to be the most efficient and each in its different way reflects the connection with the Soviets.

2. We have not been entirely convinced that this was the proper approach to the subject, and numerous student critiques of the course have made the point that an overall view of the satellites would be preferable to a few selected examples. [REDACTED] of your office did an admirable job of presenting just such an overall view for the last OSI (USAF) course, under the subject title of "The Dynamics of Communist Intelligence and Security Services."

3. It would be very much appreciated if [REDACTED] could give a similar presentation from 0900 to 1200 on Friday, 12 July, for the CI/OPS Course No. 53.
